Symposium (60 minutes)

Symposia are sessions in which multiple participants (between 3-4 contributors) deliver presentations on a shared topic or theme. Each symposium must include a chairperson, 3-4 presenters and a discussant (who may also be the chairperson). The chairperson/convenor introduces the topic of discussion at the beginning, which is followed by individual presentations and a concluding overview/key points by the discussant. Allocated time for a symposium is 60 minutes, which allows 10 minutes per contributor (chairperson, presenter, and discussant) and a minimum of 10 minutes for questions/discussion. A symposium must have participants from at least two different countries. The person submitting the symposium proposal is designated as the symposium chair and is responsible for uploading the symposium summary abstract and the individual presentations' abstracts upon submission. Please note the following:

- The complete symposium abstract is submitted by the chair/convenor of the symposium, and must include a symposium summary abstract, followed by each individual presentation abstract
- Please ensure that all symposia participants have an ECP 2025 account before the symposium submission

Submitted symposia abstracts must have the following format:

1. Symposium summary should be no more than 300 words and must include:

- a. Title, name and affiliation of the chairperson/convenor
- b. Title, name and affiliation of discussant (if different)
- c. Overview and importance of topic
- d. Brief summary of contributions
- e. Conclusions/implications
- f. Keywords (3 maximum)

2. Individual presentations' abstracts should be no more than 300 words each, and must include:

- a. Title, name and affiliation of the presenter
- b. Research aims and objectives
- c. Theoretical background
- d. Research design/methodology/approach
- e. Results (obtained or expected)
- f. Limitations
- g. Implications for research, practice and/or policy (including contribution to field, originality and value)
- h. Keywords (3 maximum)
